☒ Why So Many Users Are Frustrated with Microsoft Support

Before you get to a person, most people face these common headaches:

- Long automated menus
- Getting disconnected mid-call
- Repeating your problem over and over
- Responses that don't match your issue

Most of this is caused by Microsoft's AI-powered virtual agent. While it's great for simple tasks, it struggles with real-world problems. That's why calling 1-866-396-3403 is the smarter move.

When you call 1-866-396-3403, you bypass the dead ends and get assistance from someone trained to solve your problem.
